

Dua e Ahad – English Translation

O Allah, Lord of the great light, Lord of the exalted Throne, Lord of the surging seas, Revealer of the Torah, the Gospel, and the Psalms, Lord of shade and heat, Revealer of the Great Quran, and Lord of the angels brought near, the prophets, and the messengers.

O Allah, I ask You by Your noble Name, by Your radiant Countenance, and by Your eternal sovereignty, O Ever-Living, O Self-Subsisting.

I ask You by the Name through which the heavens and the earth were illuminated, and by the Name through which the former and the latter were set aright; O Ever-Living before every living being, O Ever-Living after every living being, O Ever-Living when there is no living being.

Revive my heart with Your light, make me devoted to Your worship, do not change my name, do not alter my body, and do not disgrace me by turning me away from obedience to You.

O Allah, convey to my master, the Master of the Age—may Allah's blessings be upon him—on behalf of all believing men and believing women in the east and west of the earth, on its land and sea, and on my behalf and that of my parents, blessings and charities equal to all that Your heavens and earth encompass.

O Allah, I renew for him, on this morning of mine and on every day that I live, a covenant, a pledge, and an allegiance binding upon my neck, from which I will never turn away nor withdraw.

O Allah, make me among his helpers, his supporters, those who defend him, those who hasten to fulfill his needs, those who obey his commands, those who protect him, those who remain patient with him, and those who attain martyrdom before him.

O Allah, if death should come between me and him, then bring me out of my grave, shrouded, with my sword unsheathed and my spear uncovered, answering the call of the caller in the present and the absent.

O Allah, show us the rightly guided countenance and the praiseworthy brilliance, gladden our eyes by gazing upon him, hasten his relief, ease his emergence, broaden his path, make us tread his way, and cause his command to prevail.

O Allah, strengthen his support, elevate his word, and make me among those who attain martyrdom in his presence.

O Allah, do not deprive me of the honor of supporting him, do not deny me his companionship, do not take away recognition of him from me, do not cause my heart to deviate after You have guided me, and grant me mercy from Yourself; surely You are the Bestower.

O Allah, send blessings upon Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, and peace be upon him, O Remnant of Allah on the earth.
